

2010 ArSHA Convention Across Our Professions

Sunday, 27 December 2009

Celebration of ArSHA's 50th Anniversary "Reflecting on the Past and Looking to the Future"

The 2010 ArSHA Convention will be held at the beautiful Desert Willow Conference Center in Phoenix, Arizona on Friday and Saturday, April 23-24, 2010. Plans are underway for a robust slate of speakers, vendor exhibits, Silent Auction, and poster sessions.

Take a look at some of the presentation titles:

- Professional Supervision in Speech-Language Pathology
- AAC Therapy Ideas From Light Tech to High Tech
- Speech Intelligibility: Clinical Approaches Based on Current Research
- Professional Performance Review Process for the School-Based SLP
- Importance of Language Learning Through Teaching of Social Skills to Students with Autism
- Auditory Processing Disorders

Interested in doing a poster session? Click on Call for Papers to submit your proposal.

Please click on www.desertwillowconferencecenter.com and take a look at the convention site!

See you at convention!