CALL FOR NOMINATIONS, HONORS AND AWARDS

Nominators must be current, active members of ArSHA

AWARDS TO CONSIDER

I. HONORS OF THE ASSOCIATION: The highest honor given by ArSHA to a current, active ArSHA member, in recognition of sustained and meritorious service to ArSHA and in any one or more of the following areas: 1) research and publications contributing basic or applied knowledge needed by the profession; 2) teaching in communication science and disorders; 3) clinical service to adults and/or children with communicative disorders and 4) service to ASHA and/or other professional national, state, regional or local organizations.

II. AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT: Awarded to those who are not members or part of the profession, but who have made outstanding and sustained contributions to the professions of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology.

III. MOLINE MENTORSHIP AWARD: In memory of Marilyn Quintana Moline, this award recognizes a current, active ArSHA member, who best exemplifies the qualities of a mentor. Defined as a wise and trusted counselor or teacher, especially in occupational settings, Marilyn typified this description, in her skills in clinical direction and supervision. As a mentor to many during her career, it is hoped that this award will honor both her memory and the tradition she established.

IV. STATE CLINICAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD: This award is connected to the Louis M. DiCarlo Award for Recent Clinical Achievement of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Foundation (ASHF). All nominations for state consideration must: 1) meet national ASHF criteria for eligibility; 2) include all required information in the required format per ASHF directions; and, 3) be submitted to ArSHA with the ArSHA nomination form by the Friday, March 1, 2019 deadline for state consideration. (for details of the award, see the ASHF website: www.ashfoundation.org)

Please see the next page for the Honors and Awards Nomination Form.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: Friday, March 1, 2019

If all materials are not received by the deadline, the nominee(s) will not be considered and the deadline will not be extended.
